EMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

It is getting to be that time of year when we need to start thinking of spring planting in the garden and flower beds, and that goes for the community garden in the church yard, too. If you are starting vegetables or flowers, do some extra for these places, too, or when you are shopping in the greenhouses, pick up something to put in there. It seems these weeks are just flying by, so let's be prepared.

The Christikon Benefit Auction will take place on April 24th at the Billings Depot. This is a fascinating event, to see the displays of quilts, crafts, theme baskets, original artwork, jewelry, tickets to sporting events, and vacation get-aways that go on sale at both silent and live auctions. Quilting groups in our congregations, area artists, and craft makers contribute various items to this event. Our own quilting group of ladies, who are members of the Pineview Quilters, has donated a beautiful queen size quilt, and a blue and white afghan made by Betty Strecker. Betty also made a cream-colored crocheted baby blanket decorated with yellow satin ribbon and pearl beads, which is lovely. Pat Radden from the Seniors' Group made a gorgeous white crocheted lap robe. Dawn Petty contributed a white ceramic pitcher and bowl, and Connie Herberg donated one of her paintings. There are always snacks and refreshments available at the auction too. You would really enjoy attending this event, and if you decide to contribute some items for the sale, they need to be delivered to the Christikon Billings office at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 1108 24th St. West, in Billings. For more information, you can call the Christikon office at 406-656-1969.

COMMENTARIES OF THE CHURCH MOUSE

Greetings Friends and Neighbors,

Do you read any books or novels to pass the time? I love to read, as it helps me escape into another world temporarily. Sometimes I feel that I get too involved in the stories that I read and the outcome is often awkward. Recently I was reading The Last of the Mohicans and really getting lost in the adventure of the story. Meanwhile, Mrs. T.C. had been busy giving the kids a little shape'em up haircut in the laundry room and happened to leave the clippers out when they all retired for the evening. When I took a break from reading, I saw the hair clippers and had an epiphany of sort. Yep, I grabbed those clippers and shaved off everything, except for a small strip, nose to tail! There I was, standing in a pile of hair, sporting the coolest Mohawk anyone has ever seen. The Last of T.C. Mouse. I could hardly wait to show Mrs. T. C. my new hairstyle. Her reaction would be priceless. Me showing up to breakfast, acting like nothing had changed. Kind of like your reaction, when I proclaim. April Fools! A mouse with a Mohawk? I may be crazy, but not that crazy. Tread lightly my friends, as the 1st of April is the prankster's holiday. Have some fun with it, but keep it safe.

Spring has officially sprung and all of the trees, flowers and plants are starting to grow. Won't be long before it is time to get the garden prepped and ready for planting. I sure hope we get some of those April showers, that bring May flowers. If we have a wet spring, the asparagus and mushrooms will be up in abundance and the hunt will be on. I'm anxious to don my buckskins and run through the cottonwood trees along the river bottom in search of these treasures!

Earth Day is on the 22nd, which is a good time to volunteer some time cleaning up around the community. Perhaps even plant a tree or two. I often sit back and wonder what I can do to save the earth? Aside from becoming President, I cannot see what I, a mere mortal mouse can do that would change much of anything. Then I realize a bunch of us working together can accomplish quite a bit with just a little time and some elbow grease. I would be happy to help out on your Earth Day projects, just let me know.

Well, that is enough for now. I hope to see you in Church on Sunday.

Your faithful friend in residence at Emmanuel.

T. C. Mouse

Waymakers News!

March has been Magical with the return of Pastor Josh. The kids were giddy with excitement the day he returned! There has been so many games of hide and seek played since his return!

We have been covering lots of different bible stories, Easter week brings all sorts of fun activities including, filling eggs for hunts, talking about the resurrection and making resurrection rolls to eat! We are so looking forward to the childrens 'sip and paint' lead by our one and only Dawn Sherseth in April! We also started memorizing a bible verse every week! We hope to have prizes for the kids who memorized the most at the end of the year.

Our last Waymakers for the year will be April 24th. We will have a PARTY with Ice cream floats and lots of Play time! We are trying to plan some gatherings throughout the summer so we don't lose contact with all our new friends.
